

IB Information Technology in a Global Society

This course is designed to promote an understanding and appreciation of the social significance of information technology and networking as students analyze and evaluate in a critical manner the impact and ethical considerations arising from the widespread use of information technology and networking. The course focuses on how information systems and networks are used to process and exchange information for control, analysis, and communications.

Credits 1

Grades

11, 12

Course Designation

International Baccalaureate (IB),
Weighted (1.0W)

Schools

Gar-Field High School

Requirements

Enrollment in IB Programme

Prerequisites

None