

IBMYP Social Studies 8 – Civics & Economics

This eighth-grade course asks students to examine the roles citizens play in the political, governmental, and economic systems in the United States. Students will have an opportunity to learn the intellectual and practical skills required to be responsible citizens. This course has an associated Standards of Learning (SOL) test that all eighth-grade students will take.

Length

Year

Grades

8

Schools

Beville Middle School

Fred Lynn Middle School

Hampton Middle School

Unity Braxton Middle School