

Marine Corps 3

Junior Reserve Officer Training Corps (JROTC) is a program designed to teach leadership skills, character development, self-discipline, and citizenship through the study and practical application of United States Marine Corps (USMC) leadership traits and principles. In the third year of the USMC JROTC program, students are applying and mastering knowledge of general military subjects, leadership, citizenship, personal growth and responsibilities, public service and career exploration.

Credits 1

Grades

11, 12

Schools

Gar-Field High School

Requirements

Students must be able to participate in physical education program, dress in regulation uniform and meet and maintain the personal grooming standards.

Prerequisites

Marine Corps 2