

Video and Media Technology

This Video and Media Technology course allows students to explore video and media technology, from the history of the field to current methods of planning and producing video media. Students will learn the basics of camera operation, audio, lighting, and editing by creating their own videos from storyboard to presentation.

This course connects to the following career pathways:

Arts, A/V Technology & Communications

Credits 1

Grades

10, 11, 12

Schools

Forest Park High School

Hylton High School

Patriot High School

Prerequisites

Animation and Digital Content Technology \(formerly Digital Visualization\)